

Abstract Submittal Guidelines

Please follow the below format for your paper submission. There are no page limitations.

Title: please use a title that best describes the topic of your paper

Medical facility or location for study:

Authors (Last Name, First Name): please list all authors who contributed

Abstract Body

Introduction: a short paragraph which will contain a brief question, hypothesis or objective.

Methods: Please explain the methods used to collect the data for your paper.

Results: Clear and logical presentation of the facts. Include data, sample size, and statistics.

Discussion: Include limitations and conclusions within the context of the stated question.

Significance: examine the clinical relevance of the study.